Fourteenth Court of Appeals

NO. 14-99-01140-CR

REGINALD HARRIS, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 155th District Court
Waller County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 98-04-9346

O P I N I O N

Appellant was charged by a three-count indictment with the felony offenses of attempted murder, aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, and aggravated sexual assault. Upon appellant's plea of guilty, the court assessed punishment at probation for a term of ten years. Subsequently, the State filed a Motion to Revoke Probation. Appellant entered a plea of not true to all but one of the allegations in the State's motion. The court found the allegations to be true and assessed punishment at confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for ten years.

Appellant's court-appointed attorney filed a motion to withdraw from representation of appellant along with a supporting brief in which he concludes that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493 (1967). The brief presents a professional evaluation of the record demonstrating why there are no arguable points of error to be advanced. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807, 811 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

A copy of counsel's brief was delivered to appellant. Appellant was advised of his right to examine the appellate record and to file a pro se response. As of this date, appellant has not responded.

We have carefully reviewed the record and counsel's brief and agree that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. Further, we find no reversible error in the record. A discussion of the brief would add nothing to the jurisprudence of the State.

Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed and the motion to withdraw is granted.
