DONALD LEE WEATHERS, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 230th District Court
Harris County, Texas
Trial Court Cause Nos. 806,631 and 809,977

OPINION

Appellant was charged by indictment in cause number 806,631 with the felony offense of indecency with a child. In cause number 809,977, appellant was charged by indictment with the felony offense of aggravated sexual assault of a child. Appellant entered a plea of guilty in each cause without an agreed recommendation from the State. Following the return of a pre-sentence investigation report, the court assessed punishment in each case at confinement for fifteen years in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

Appellant's appointed counsel filed a motion to withdraw from representation of appellant along with a supporting brief in each case in which he concludes that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. The briefs meet the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493 (1967), by presenting a professional evaluation of the record demonstrating why there are no arguable grounds to be advanced. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

A copy of counsel's brief in each case was delivered to appellant. Appellant was advised of the right to examine the appellate record and to file a pro se response. As of this date, no pro se response has been filed.

We have carefully reviewed the record and counsel's briefs and agree that the appeals are wholly frivolous and without merit. Further, we find no reversible error in the record. A discussion of the briefs would add nothing to the jurisprudence of the State.

Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed in each cause and the motions to withdraw are granted.
