CAUSE NO. F08-24667-Y

THE STATE OF TEXAS

IN THE CRIMINAL

VS.

DISTRICT COURT 7

JAMES GARFIELD BROADNAX

DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN OF THE JURY:

In a prior proceeding, JAMES GARFIELD BROADNAX, ("the Defendant") was found guilty of the offense of capital murder, alleged to have been committed on or about June 19th, 2008, in Dallas County, Texas. It is now your duty to determine from all the evidence in the case, answers to certain questions called Special Issues.

You are instructed that the punishment for the offense of capital murder is either death or confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for life without parole.

Two special issues, numbered one and two, are included in this charge. You are instructed to answer these Special Issues either "yes" or "no" in accordance with the instructions given in this charge.

Special Issue No. 1: Do you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that there is a probability that the defendant would commit criminal acts of violence that would constitute a continuing threat to society?

Special Issue No. 2: Do you find, taking into consideration all of the evidence, including the circumstances of the offense, the defendant's character and background, and the personal moral culpability of the defendant, that there is a sufficient mitigating circumstance or circumstances to warrant that a sentence of life imprisonment without parole rather than a death sentence be imposed?

Instructions Regarding Special Issues No. 1

In deliberating on your answer to Special Issue No. 1, you are instructed that the State has the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that the answer to the issue is "yes."

If you do not so find and believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the answer to Special Issue No. 1 should be "yes," or if you have a reasonable doubt thereof, then you shall answer the Special Issue "no."

You may not answer Special Issue No. 1 "yes" unless the jury agrees unanimously, and you may not answer Special Issue No. 1 "no" unless 10 or more members of the jury agree. The members of the jury need not agree on what particular evidence supports a "no" answer to the issue.

If you have answered "no" to Special Issue No. 1, then you shall cease your deliberations. If you have answered "yes" to Special Issue No. 1, then you shall next consider Special Issue No. 2.

In deliberating on Special Issue No. 1, you shall consider all evidence admitted at the guilt or innocence stage and the punishment stage, including evidence of the defendant's background or character or the circumstances of the offense that militates for or mitigates against the imposition of the death penalty.

Instructions Regarding Special Issue No. 2

In deliberating on your answer to Special Issue No. 2, you are instructed that you may not answer Special Issue No. 2 "no" unless the jury agrees unanimously, and you may not answer Special Issue No. 2 "yes" unless 10 or more members of the jury agree. The members of the jury need not agree on what particular evidence supports a "yes" answer to Special Issue No. 2.

In arriving at your verdict, you shall consider mitigating evidence to be evidence that a juror might regard as reducing the Defendant's moral blameworthiness.

If the jury answers under Special Issue No. 2 that a circumstance or circumstances warrant that a sentence of life imprisonment without parole rather than a death sentence be imposed, the Court will sentence the defendant to imprisonment in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for life without parole.

Under the law applicable in this case, a defendant sentenced to confinement for life without parole is ineligible for release on parole.

General Instructions

You are instructed that if the jury answers "yes" to Special Issue No. 1 and answers "no" to Special Issue No. 2, the Court shall sentence the defendant to death.

If the jury answers "no" to Special Issue No. 1 or answers "yes" to Special Issue No. 2, then the Court shall sentence the defendant to confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for life without parole.

If the jury's answers to the Special Issues are unanimous, then the presiding juror may sign each Special Issue for the entire jury. If any answer or answers are not unanimous, but agreed to by at least 10 members of the jury, as set out above, then the 10 or more jurors who agree shall individually sign the Special Issue.

During your deliberations upon the Special Issues, you must not consider, discuss nor relate any matters not in evidence before you. You shall not consider nor mention any personal knowledge or information you may have about any fact or person connected with this case which is not shown by the evidence.

In arriving at the answers to the Special Issues, it will not be proper for you to fix the same by any method of chance other than by a full, fair and free exchange of the opinion of each individual juror.

You are not to be swayed by mere sentiment, conjecture, sympathy, passions, prejudices, public opinion, or public feeling in considering all the evidence before you and in answering the Special Issues.

In determining your answers to the Special Issues, you shall consider all the evidence admitted in this whole trial.

Evidence of Extraneous Offense

You are further instructed that if there is any evidence before you in this case regarding the defendant having committed an offense or offenses other than the offense alleged against him in the indictment, you cannot consider this evidence for any purpose unless you find and believe beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant committed such other offenses, if any were committed, and even then you may only consider the same in determining the answers to the Special Issues.

Right to Testify

You are further instructed the law allows the defendant to testify in his own behalf at this phase of the trial, but a choice on his part not to do so is not a circumstance against him and no presumption can be indulged in by the jury for a choice on his part not to do so. During your consideration of this case, you are instructed not to consider, discuss, or even refer to the choice of the defendant not to testify.

After the reading of this Charge, you shall not talk with anyone not of your jury. After the argument of counsel, you will retire to consider your answers to the Special Issues submitted to you. It is the duty of your Presiding Juror to preside in the jury room and vote with you on the answers to the Special Issues submitted.

You are the exclusive judges of the facts proved, of the credibility of the witnesses, and of the weight to be given to the testimony, but you are bound to receive the law from the Court, which is herein given you, and be governed thereby.
