A person commits the offense of sexual assault if the person intentionally or knowingly:

1. causes the penetration of the anus or female sexual organ of another person, who is not the spouse of the actor, by any means, without that person's consent; OR
2. causes the sexual organ of another person, who is not the spouse of the actor, without that person's consent, to contact or penetrate the mouth, anus, or sexual organ of another person, including the actor.

A person commits the offense of aggravated sexual assault if the person commits sexual assault, as defined above, and the person:

1. causes serious bodily injury or attempts to cause the death of the victim or another person in the course of the same criminal episode; OR
2. uses a deadly weapon in the course of the same criminal episode.

An aggravated sexual assault is without the consent of the other person if the actor compels the other person to submit or participate by the use of physical force or violence.

A firearm is a deadly weapon.

"Attempt" means an act amounting to more than mere preparation that tends but fails to effect the commission of the offense intended.

"Individual" means a human being who has been born and is alive.

"Actor" means a person whose criminal responsibility is in issue in a criminal action.

"Spouse" means a person who is legally married to another.

"Consent" means assent in fact, whether express or apparent.

"Bodily injury" means physical pain, illness, or any impairment of physical condition.

"Serious bodily injury" means bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes death, serious permanent disfigurement, or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ.

A person acts intentionally, or with intent, with respect to a result of his conduct when it is his conscious objective or desire to cause the result.

A person acts knowingly, or with knowledge, with respect to a result of his conduct when he is aware that his conduct is reasonably certain to cause the result.

Our law provides a defendant may testify in his own behalf if he elects to do so. This, however, is a privilege accorded to the defendant, and in the event he does not testify, that fact cannot be taken as a circumstance against him. In this case the Defendant has not testified, and you are instructed that you cannot and must not refer or allude to the fact throughout your deliberations or take it into consideration for any purpose whatsoever as a circumstance against the Defendant.

All persons are presumed to be innocent and no person may be convicted of an offense unless each element of the offense is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. The fact that a person has been arrested, confined, or indicted for, or otherwise charged with the offense gives rise to no inference of guilt at his trial. The law does not require a Defendant to prove his innocence or produce any evidence at all. The presumption of innocence alone is sufficient to acquit the Defendant, unless the jurors are satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt of the Defendant's guilt after careful and impartial consideration of all the evidence in the case.

The prosecution has the burden of proving the Defendant guilty and it must do so by proving each and every element of the offense charged beyond a reasonable doubt and if it fails to do so, you must acquit the Defendant.

It is not required that the prosecution prove guilt beyond all possible doubt; it is required that the prosecution's proof excludes all "reasonable doubt" concerning the Defendant's guilt.

In the event you have a reasonable doubt as to the Defendant's guilt after considering all the evidence before you, and these instructions, you will acquit him and say by your verdict "Not Guilty".

Now, bearing in mind the foregoing instructions, if you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 22nd day of September, 1986, in Tarrant County, Texas, the Defendant, Jay Thayer Williams, did then and there intentionally cause the death of an individual, Sandra Martin, by shooting her with a deadly weapon, to-wit: a firearm, and the said Defendant was then and there in the course of attempting to commit the offense of aggravated sexual assault of Sandra Martin, then you will find the Defendant guilty of capital murder, as charged in the indictment.

If you do not so find beyond a reasonable doubt, or if you have a reasonable doubt thereof, you will acquit the Defendant of the offense of capital murder and next consider whether the Defendant is guilty of the offense of murder.

Now, bearing in mind the foregoing instructions, if you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 22nd day of September, 1986, in Tarrant County, Texas, the Defendant, Jay Thayer Williams, did then and there intentionally or knowingly cause the death of an individual, Sandra Martin, by shooting her with a deadly weapon, to-wit: a firearm; OR

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 22nd day of September, 1986, in Tarrant County, Texas, the Defendant, Jay Thayer Williams, did then and there intentionally, with the intent to cause serious bodily injury to Sandra Martin, commit an act clearly dangerous to human life, namely, shooting her with a deadly weapon, to-wit: a firearm, which caused the death of Sandra Martin, then you will find the Defendant guilty of the offense of murder.

If you do not so find beyond a reasonable doubt, or if you have a reasonable doubt thereof, you will acquit the Defendant and say by your verdict "Not Guilty".

The indictment in this case is no evidence whatsoever of the guilt of the Defendant. It is a written instrument necessary in order to bring this case into court for trial, and you will not consider the indictment as any evidence in this case or as any circumstance whatsoever against the Defendant.

You are the exclusive judges of the facts proved, of the credibility of the witnesses and of the weight to be given to their testimony, but you are bound to receive the law from the Court, which is herein given, and be governed thereby.

You are charged that it is only in open court that the jury is permitted to receive evidence regarding the case, or any witness therein, and no juror is permitted to communicate to any other juror anything he or she may have seen or heard regarding the case or any witness therein, from any source other than in open court.

Your verdict must be by a unanimous vote of all members of the jury. In your deliberations you shall consider the charge as a whole and you must not refer to or discuss any matters not in evidence.

At times throughout the trial the Court may have been called upon to rule on the question of whether or not certain offered evidence might properly be admitted. You are not to concern yourselves with the reasons for the Court's ruling nor draw any inferences therefrom. Whether offered evidence is admissible is a question of law and in admitting evidence to which an objection is made, the Court does not determine what weight should be given such evidence; nor does the Court pass on the credibility of the witness. You must not consider any evidence offered that has been rejected by the Court. As to any question to which an objection was sustained, you must not engage in conjecture as to what the answer might have been or as to the reason for the objection.

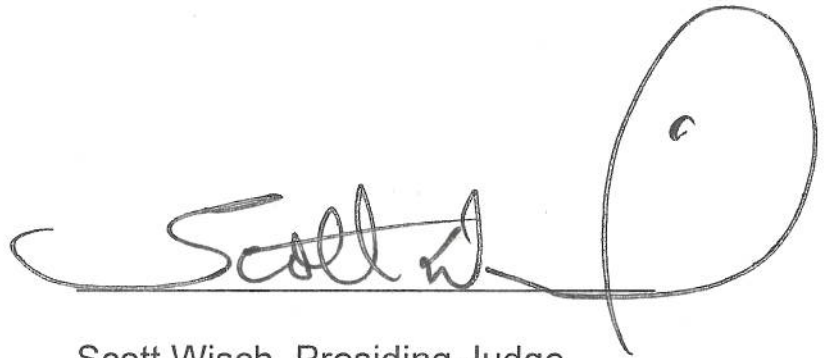

You are instructed that you are not to allow yourselves to be influenced in any degree whatsoever by what you may think or surmise the opinion of the Court to be. The Court has no right by any word or any act to indicate any opinion respecting any matter of fact involved in this case, nor to indicate any desire respecting the outcome of the case. The Court has not intended to express any opinion upon any matter of fact, and if you have observed anything which you may have interpreted as the Court's opinion as to any matter of fact, you must wholly disregard it.

After you retire to the jury room, you should select one of your members as your Presiding Juror. Any member of the jury may serve as Presiding Juror. It is that person's duty to preside at your deliberations, vote with you, and when you have unanimously agreed upon a verdict, certify to your verdict by signing one of the attached forms.

Should the jury desire to have any or all of the admitted exhibits delivered to you for your deliberations, your Presiding Juror shall so notify the Court in writing and the requested exhibits will be delivered.

After you have retired, you may communicate with the Court in writing through the bailiffs who have you in charge. Your written communication must be signed by the Presiding Juror. Do not attempt to talk to the bailiffs, the attorneys, or the Court regarding any question you may have concerning the trial of the case.

After you have reached a unanimous verdict or if you desire to communicate with the Court, please use the jury call button on the wall and one of the bailiffs will respond.
