Re: Local Rules for Williamson County, Texas

Dear Ms. Saunders:

Pursuant to the directions from Mr. Parsley, I am enclosing a copy of the missing page from Exhibit "A" to the Williamson County Local Rules. This page should be inserted after the page titled "Exhibit "A", RULES OF ADMINISTRATION, THIRD ADMINISTRATIVE JUDICIAL REGION OF TEXAS, EFFECTIVE JANUARY 9, 1988". This will be page 2 and 3 to these Rules. The first and second pages are not numbered, however, the third page is number "-3-".

I apologize for this clerical error, it was completely overlook by everyone who proofed the Rules. I appreciate your cooperation in helping correct this problem.

Also, please also be advised that the current Local Administrative Judge for Williamson County has changed. The new Local Administrative Judge for the District Courts of Williamson County is Judge Burt Carnes, 368th Judicial District Court, 405 Martin Luther King, No. 8, Georgetown, Texas 78626.

If you have any questions or need further information please do not hesitate to call. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

GENERAL RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL DISTRICT COURTS AND COUNTY COURTS AT LAW

A. DECORUM

A.1. Opening Procedure. Immediately before the scheduled time for the first court session on each day, the Bailiff shall direct all persons present to their seats and shall cause the courtroom to come to order. As the Judge (or Master) enters the courtroom, the Bailiff shall state:

"Everyone rise, please."

And while everyone is still standing, the Bailiff shall announce:

"The _____ Court of Williamson County, Texas, is now in session. Judge _____ presiding. Be seated, please."

A.2. Recess. When the Judge (or Master) announces a recess, the Bailiff shall state:

"Everyone rise, please."

And all shall remain standing until the Judge (or Master) enters and shall then state:

"Be seated, please."

Before a recess of a jury trial, the Jury will be excused and all other persons present shall rise while the Bailiff conducts the Jury from the courtroom into the jury room.

A.3. General Rules of Courtroom Conduct

a. All officers of the Court, and all other participants, except witnesses who have been placed under the Rule, shall promptly enter the courtroom before the scheduled time for each court session. When the Bailiff calls the Court to order, complete order should be observed.

b. In the courtrooms, there shall be :

1) No tobacco used;

- 2) No chewing gum used by a witness or by any Attorney while interrogating a witness or addressing the Judge or Jury;
 - 3) No reading of newspapers or magazines;
 - 4) No bottles, cups or beverage containers except court water pitchers and cups;
 - 5) No edibles;
 - 6) No propping of feet on tables or chairs;
 - 7) No noise or talking that interferes with court proceedings;
 - 8) No knives or firearms
- c. The Judge, the Attorneys, and other officers of the Court will refer to and address other court officers and participants in the proceedings respectfully and impersonally by using appropriate titles and surnames rather than first names. The form of address toward a Judge shall be "Your Honor". Any reference to the Judge shall be to "The Court".
- d. The oath will be administered in manner calculated to impress upon the witnesses the importance and solemnity of the promise to adhere to the truth.

A.4. Conduct of Attorneys.

- a. Attorneys should observe the letter and spirit of all canons of ethics, including those dealing with discussion of cases with representatives of the media and those concerning improper ex parte communications with the Judge;
- b. Attorneys should advise their clients and witnesses of local Rules of Decorum that may be applicable;
- c. All objections, arguments, and other comments by Counsel shall be directed to the Judge or Jury and not to opposing Counsel;
- d. While another Attorney is addressing the Judge or Jury, an Attorney should not stand for any purpose except to claim the right to interrupt

- the Attorney who is speaking to make a proper objection;
- e. Attorneys should not approach the bench without leave of court; should leave the courtroom only upon being granted permission to leave, and, should never lean on the bench;
 - f. Attorneys shall remain seated at the counsel tables at all times except;
 - (1) when the Judge or Jury enters and leaves;
 - (2) when addressing the Judge or Jury; and
 - (3) whenever it may be proper to handle documents, exhibits, or other evidence. (Leave of court is required.)
 - g. Attorneys should anticipate any need to move furniture, appliances, or easels, and should make advance arrangements with the Bailiff. Such moving or arrangements should not take place during court sessions if at all possible.

A.5. Dress Code

- a. All officers of the Court shall dress appropriately for court sessions; appropriate dress entails attire suitable for formal professional or business engagements.
- b. Jurors, witnesses, parties and members of the public should dress appropriately.

A.6. Conduct of Photographers and of Television and Broadcasting Personnel

The media must obtain prior permission of the Court, and if said permission is granted, the following rules apply:

- a. Television. One fixed video camera with one operator will be permitted in the courtroom during the trial. No camera lights will be permitted in the courtroom. The various television stations will have to agree to share the tape and agree upon whose camera will be located in the courtroom. There will be no other television or movie film permitted in the courtroom. No interviews of any kind will be permitted in the courtroom. No filming will be permitted through the windows in the courtroom door. No films, videos or photos shall be made of any juror involved in the case. No witness should be filmed or photographed unless advance written permission is obtained from the witness.

- b. Other Media. Radio, print and television media representatives will be permitted in the courtroom so long as there is adequate seating for public access to the courtroom. Still camera photographs without flash will be permitted in the courtroom so long as the operator takes pictures from his or her seat without changing location in the courtroom or creating a disturbance or disruption. No interviews shall be held in the courtroom. So long as all media representatives honor the Court's rules concerning media in the courtroom, these rules will remain in effect. Any violation in these rules will result in the exclusion of all filming, photographing and interviewing inside the Justice Center for the duration of that trial.

B. UNCONTESTED DOCKET

Each Court will establish procedures for uncontested cases filed in that Court.

C. TRO'S, WRITS OF ATTACHMENT, WRITS OF GARNISHMENT, WRITS OF SEQUESTRATION

- C.1. Presentation. Cases requesting extraordinary relief shall be presented by the Attorney to the Judge in whose court the case is pending. If that Judge is unavailable and if waiting for that Judge to become available would result in an emergency situation, then the matter may be presented to another Judge for consideration.

- C.2. TRO's in Non-Family Civil Cases. County Court at Law Judges will not grant

TRO's in non-family District Court cases.

- C.3. Notice. Before presenting a TRO or any petition for extraordinary relief, the Attorney representing the Defendant or Respondent, if known, must be notified by the Plaintiff's or Movant's Attorney and given the opportunity to appear with Plaintiff's or Movant's Attorney.

D. HEARINGS CONDUCTED BY PHONE

- D.1. Agreement. At the discretion of the Judge and after arrangements have been made in advance for the Judge to be available, hearings not requiring the introduction of evidence may be conducted by telephone conference calls.
- D.2. Arrangements. The Court Coordinator should not be requested to make arrangements. The Attorney requesting the conference is responsible for arranging the telephone conference call. A Judge will not initiate a conference call. All arrangements with telephone operators must be made by an Attorney.
- D.3. Record. A court reporter shall be provided by the Court during these calls. A request by an Attorney for such an arrangement must be made in advance.
- D.4. Court Discretion. At any time, even after the completion of a conference call, a Judge may determine that a hearing by telephone will not be sufficient and may require a hearing in court upon notice to all parties.

E. VACATION OF COUNSEL

Any attorney may designate not more than four weeks during the year as vacation, during which time he will not be assigned to trial or required to engage in any pre-trial proceedings. The written designation must be filed with the Clerk with a copy to all Court Coordinators no less than ninety (90) days in advance of the vacation. This rule operates only where lead Counsel, as defined by T.R.C.P. 8, is affected, unless the Court expands coverage to other Counsel.

F. ELECTRONICALLY TRANSMITTED COURT DOCUMENTS

The following rules govern the procedure for the District Clerk of Williamson County ("the Clerk") to receive and file electronically transmitted court documents.

- F.1. Receipt. The Clerk is authorized to accept for filing via electronic transmission any document which might be filed in a court action except:
- a) returns of service on issuances;
 - b) bonds;
 - c) signed orders or judgments
- F.2. Paper Quality. Documents electronically transmitted for filing will be received by the Clerk on a plain paper facsimile and printed by a laser printer, thereby rendering the copy of archival quality. No document printed on thermal paper shall be filed.
- F.3. Fee and Payment. No documents electronically transmitted shall be accepted by the Clerk for filing until court costs and fees have been paid. Court costs and fees shall be paid by a payment method authorized by the Clerk. Documents tendered to the Clerk electronically without payment of court costs and fees, or with incomplete information for payment, or which do not conform to applicable rules, will not be filed. If the Clerk rejects a filing, the Clerk will notify the sender as soon as practicable.
- F.4. Fee Schedule. A fee schedule for electronic filing shall be adopted annually by the Clerk and approved by the District Judges.
- F.5. Original Records. An electronically transmitted document accepted for filing will be recognized as the original record of file or for evidentiary purposes when it bears the Clerk's official date and time file stamp.

- F.6. Requirements. Every document electronically transmitted for filing shall conform to the requirements for filing established by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, i.e., shall be on paper measuring approximately 8 1/2 x 11 inches, shall be signed individually by the party or by the party's Attorney of record, and shall contain that individual's State Bar of Texas identification number, if any, address, telephone number and telecopier number. The quality of the original hard copy shall be clear and dark enough to transmit legibly.
- F.7. Original Signature. The sender shall maintain the original of the document with original signature affixed as required by Section 51.806, Texas Government Code.
- F.8. Cover Sheet. A cover sheet must accompany every transmission which shall:
- a) clearly identify the sender, the documents being transmitted, and the number of pages;
 - b) have clear and concise instructions concerning issuance of other requests; and
 - c) have complete information on the payment authorization for court costs and fees.
- F.9. Verification. The Clerk upon receipt of an electronically transmitted document shall verify the completeness of the transmission.
- F.10. Acknowledgement. After filing an electronically transmitted document, the Clerk will electronically transmit to the sender an acknowledgement of the filing, together with cost receipts, if any.

F.11. Seals. No citation or writ bearing the official seal of the Court may be transmitted electronically.

F.12. Filing. Electronic transmission of a document does not constitute filing. Filing is complete when the Clerk's official date and time file stamp is affixed to the document. Each page of any document received by the Clerk will be automatically imprinted with the date and time of the receipt. The date and time imprinted on the last page of the document will determine the time of receipt but not the time of filing. Transmissions completed during a normal business day before 5:00 p.m. and accepted for filing will be filed on the day of the receipt. Transmissions completed after 5:00 p.m., on weekends or holidays will be verified and filed before 10:00 a.m. on the first business day following receipt of transmission. The sender is responsible for determining if there are any changes in normal business hours.

G. LOCAL PRESIDING JUDGE

By agreement of the Judges of the District Courts and the County Courts at Law, a Local Presiding Judge will be elected in January of each even-numbered year. If any Judge decides to object to this process at any time then the District Court Judges shall elect a Local Presiding Judge and the County Courts at Law shall elect a Local Presiding Judge to serve until the next January that falls in an even year and for two year terms thereafter.

H. RULES OF ADMINISTRATION - THIRD ADMINISTRATIVE JUDICIAL REGION

The Trial Courts of Williamson County adopt the Rules of Administration, Third Administrative Judicial Region of Texas, effective January 9, 1988, which are made a part of these Rules (See attached Exhibit "A"). If these local rules conflict with the Rules of Administration, then the latter will prevail.

SECTION II
FAMILY LAW - RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL DISTRICT COURTS
AND COUNTY COURTS AT LAW

A. GENERAL RULES

A.1. Random Filing. All suits authorized under the Family Code shall be filed in the District Courts and in the County Courts at Law in Williamson County on a random basis by the District Clerk.

A.2. Children's Interest Seminar.

- (a) The Court may require parties in all suits affecting the parent-child relationship filed in Williamson County to successfully complete a seminar that addresses the issues confronting children that are the subject of divorce, custody and child support litigation. Exhibit "B" attached hereto and incorporated herein for all purposes describes the seminar. Each party is responsible for payment of the appropriate fee.
- (b) The seminar shall be successfully completed within 60 days of the service of the original petition upon respondent, or if service is waived, then within 60 days of the waiver of citation.
- (c) Upon a party's failure to successfully complete the seminar pursuant to this rule, the Court may take appropriate action, including contempt, striking of any pleading, or any of the sanctions listed in Rule 215 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.
- (d) For good cause shown, the Court may waive the requirement of completion of the seminar.

B. SETTING THE CASE

B.1. Court Coordinator. All settings for non-jury matters and jury trials shall be done through the office of the Court Coordinator for the court in which the case is pending. No setting for jury trial will be given until the proper jury fee has been paid. At the time a jury trial is set, the Court Coordinator shall schedule a date for the pre-trial hearing.

B.2. Attorney Conference. Attorneys shall communicate with opposing Counsel before requesting the setting of a trial in an effort to agree upon a setting date. If the case is set without agreement of Counsel, the Attorney who set the case shall immediately notify the opposing Counsel according to the Rules of Civil Procedure.

B.3. Conflicts. No request for settings shall be directed toward any Judge. Any conflicts or difficulties in obtaining a setting may require a hearing before the Court. The Court shall then resolve the conflict or set the case at a time that is reasonable for all parties.

B.4. Preferential. A preferential setting before a visiting Judge may be obtained if the parties are willing to waive in writing their objection to a visiting Judge or if the case has been set for trial on four prior occasions and has not been reached by the Court. There will be no preferential settings before a sitting Judge.

B.5. Attempt to Confer.

a) No pre-trial matter will be set for hearing unless the moving party has first communicated with opposing Counsel to determine whether a contemplated motion or special exception will be opposed. If the motion or special exception will not be opposed, the moving party shall submit a proposed order signed by Counsel for all parties affected by the order indicating approval of same. If the motion or special exception will be opposed, the moving party shall include at the end of his pleading one of the following certificates:

1) "A conference was held on (date) with (name), Attorney for opposing party, on the substance of this motion or special exception. We were not able to agree, therefore, the matter is presented to the Court for determination," or

- 2) "I was unable to reach opposing Counsel, (name), to confer about the merits of this matter, after the following attempts: (briefly state the dates and the nature of the unsuccessful attempts to contact opposing Counsel)," or
 - 3) In multi-party cases, "Before setting this matter for hearing, I attempted to resolve this dispute by sending the attached letter to all Counsel of record."
- b) The Court Coordinator will not set any pre-trial matter for hearing unless it is accompanied by one of the foregoing certificates.
 - c) This rule does not apply to cases in which no opposing Attorney has entered an appearance, or to matters involving family violence, habeas corpus, attachment, contempt of court, or temporary orders.

C. ANCILLARY FAMILY LAW ORDERS

- C.1. Administration. The Child Support Division of the Williamson County District Clerk is designated as the administrator for all Williamson County Courts having family law jurisdiction for all spousal and child support payments. Every order or decree requiring such support payment shall require all payment be made through the Williamson County District Clerk's office, except for those cases where an Order of Assignment has been signed ordering payment directly to the Attorney General's office.
- C.2. Information. The party who is to receive support shall provide to the Williamson County District Clerk's office the information required by that office.
- C.3. Wage Assignment Order. The party who is to receive support through a wage assignment is responsible for presenting the wage assignment order to the Judge, if at all possible, at the time a decree of divorce or order modifying a prior order is signed. The party is also responsible for having all documents required by the District Clerk for forwarding wage assignments completed and filed with the wage assignment order.

C.4. Other Forms. The party who is responsible for preparing a decree of divorce for the Judge to sign is also responsible for completing any vital statistics forms and other documents required by the District Clerk's office.

C.5. QDRO. The party who is to receive a portion of another party's retirement benefit through a domestic relations order is responsible to present the order, if at all possible, at the time the decree of divorce is signed.

D. PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURES IN FAMILY LAW CASES

The Williamson County Courts having family law jurisdiction require the following procedures for family law matters. Pursuant to Rule 166, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, it is hereby ordered that these rules constitute a standing pre-trial and discovery order in all suits affecting the parent-child relationship, and in all actions to modify or enforce orders in those suits.

D.1. Inventory and Appraisalment.

- a) Within fifty days of appearance date, each party shall file with the District Clerk, a copy being furnished to the Judge, opposing Counsel and pro se parties, a sworn inventory and appraisalment of all property (both separate and community) of the parties, including any property belonging to the children of the parties.
- b) In the event of the filing of a written agreement completely settling the property of the parties to such action and all custody and support matters, it shall not be necessary to file such inventories and appraisalments.
- c) The failure to timely file such inventories and appraisalments, affidavits or statements may result, in addition to other sanctions provided by law, in the continuance of temporary alimony and/or support or in the discontinuance of same, depending upon the party failing to comply with these rules.
- d) The parties may agree in writing to exchange inventories without filing the inventories or to delay filing inventories beyond fifty days after a petition for divorce is filed.

D.2. Proposed Disposition of Issues

- a) Before 5:00 p.m. on the date that is seven (7) days prior to the date set for a trial on the merits for any divorce trial, each party shall deliver to the opposing party and to the Court Coordinator of the Court in which the case is filed a Proposed Disposition of Issues, fully completed and in the form attached as Exhibit "C" to these Rules.
- b) If the parties have an agreement on all issues pertaining to the division of community property and community debt, and the trial on the merits on the Court's docket setting remains at the time the parties are required to deliver the Proposed Disposition of Issues, the parties shall deliver to the Court Coordinator either a signed copy of their written agreement or a single Proposed Disposition of Issues, stating their agreement and signed by both parties.

D.3. Proposed Support Decision and Information

- a) Before 5:00 p.m. on the date that is seven (7) days prior to the date set for a trial on the merits before a Judge to determine an amount of child or spousal support, each party shall deliver to the opposing party and to the Court Coordinator of the Court in which the case is file a Proposed Support Decision and Information, fully completed and in the form attached to these Rules as Exhibit "D".
- b) If the parties have an agreement on all issues pertaining to support, and the setting remains on the Court's docket at the time when the Proposed Support Decision and Information forms must be delivered, the parties shall deliver to the Court Coordinator either a signed copy of their written agreement or a single Proposed Support Decision and Information stating their agreement and signed by both parties.

- D.4. Settlement Conference Certification. Before 5:00 p.m. on the date that is seven (7) days prior to the date set, the parties shall certify in writing to the Judge that a settlement conference has been held. Failure to certify that a settlement conference has occurred may result in sanctions for the non-certifying party.
- D.5. Proposed Support Decision- Temporary Orders. Immediately before a hearing on temporary orders in which the Court must decide temporary child support or temporary spousal support, each party shall deliver to the opposing party, if known, and to the Court, a Proposed Support Decision and Information, fully completed and in the form attached to these Rules as Exhibit "D".
- D.6. Proposed Disposition of Other Issues. Except for temporary orders requirements, at the time any party is required by these Rules to deliver one or more disputed or agreed pre-trial forms, the party shall also deliver to each opposing party and to the Court Coordinator a Proposed Disposition of Other Issues, which shall state separately in brief, complete sentences each trial or hearing decision that is sought by the party not covered by a required form.
- D.7. Waiver of Issues. All issues not stated as required by these Rules may be deemed waived except upon a showing of good cause for failure to comply with the Rules.
- D.8. Sanctions. If at the time pre-trial forms (excluding inventories) are required to be delivered to the Court Coordinator, all parties in a case fail to deliver the forms, the setting for that case may be stricken, unless the case was set for trial by the Court after notice of intent to dismiss for want of prosecution.
- D.9. Extension. A Court Coordinator is not authorized to extend the time for delivering pre-trial forms.
- D.10. Pre-Trial Sanctions Conference. If it appears that there has been a failure to comply with the Rules, the Judge may conduct a pre-trial sanctions conference immediately before commencing the trial or hearing. If the Judge determines upon hearing that there has been such a failure, one or more of the sanctions stated in Rule 215, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, may be imposed against any party or Attorney responsible for the failure.

D.11. Use of Forms. Subject to the applicable rules of evidence, the pre-trial forms required by these Rules may be used during the trial or hearing and may be marked as exhibits. The forms shall not be filed with the District Clerk at any time. The forms are not required for any hearing before a Title IVD Master.

D.12. No Waiver. The provision and requirements of these Rules (except for sworn inventories) may not be waived or modified by agreement of the parties. These Rules shall not be construed as a substitute for or as any limitation upon, a pre-trial or discovery right or proceeding pursuant to the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. In cases subject to these local Rules, as in other cases, Texas pre-trial conference and discovery Rules shall be utilized.

E. DISMISSAL DOCKET; INVOLUNTARY DISMISSAL

E.1. Time. At least once a year, all domestic relations cases which have been on file for more than 180 days and all cases which have been continued by agreement three times shall be placed on a dismissal docket and sent a notice of the Court's intention to dismiss the case for want of prosecution as provided by Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 165a. Written motions to remove a case from the dismissal docket must be presented to the Judge prior to the notified date of dismissal.

E.2. Dismissal. If no appearance or announcement is made when the case is called for trial, the case will be dismissed for want of prosecution at that time.

E.3. Reset. Where motions to remove a case from dismissal docket are granted, the case shall be set for trial. The party or Attorney setting the case shall give notice to opposing party or Counsel according to the Rules of Civil Procedure.

SECTION III
CIVIL CASES
DISTRICT COURTS AND COUNTY COURTS AT LAW

A. GENERAL RULES

- A.1. Random Filing. All District Court civil cases shall be filed on a blind, random basis by the District Clerk, except tax cases which will be filed on a strict rotation. All County Court civil cases shall be filed on a blind, random basis by the County Clerk, except tax cases which will be filed on a strict rotation.
- A.2. Designation. Except as herein provided, or as otherwise provided by law, all cases shall be designated civil, family, tax or probate.
- A.3. Garnishment. Every garnishment suit shall be assigned to the Court in which the original suit is pending. If the original suit is transferred to another Court, then the ancillary garnishment action shall be transferred to the same Court.
- A.4. Avoidance of Judgment. Every action in the nature of a writ of error or bill of review, or that seeks to attack, avoid or set aside any judgment, order or decree of a Trial Court of Williamson County, Texas, shall be filed and assigned in the Court in which the original judgment, order or decree was rendered.
- A.5. Consolidation. All motions for consolidation or joint hearing under Rule 174A, TRCP, shall be filed in the Court in which the first case filed is pending and if such motion is granted, the consolidated case shall be assigned to the Court in which the first case filed is pending.
- A.6. Severance. Any case which has been severed shall be filed in the Court in which the original action was filed and shall be given a new cause number.

A.7. Pre-Conviction Writs of Habeas Corpus. Pre-Convictions Writs of Habeas Corpus shall be filed in the Court whose Grand Jury term is in session.

B. SETTING THE CASE

B.1. Court Coordinator. All settings for non-jury matters and jury trials shall be done through the office of the Court Coordinator for the Court in which the case is filed. No setting for jury trial will be given until the proper jury fee has been paid. At the time the jury trial is set, the Court Coordinator shall schedule a date for the pre-trial hearing.

B.2. Attorney Conference. Attorneys shall communicate with opposing Counsel before requesting the setting of a trial in an effort to agree upon a setting date. If the case is set without agreement of Counsel, the Attorney who set the case shall immediately notify opposing Counsel according to the Rules of Civil Procedure.

B.3. Conflicts. No request for settings shall be directed toward any Judge. Any conflicts or difficulties in obtaining a setting may require a hearing before the Court in which the conflict arose. The Court shall then resolve the conflict or set the case at a time that is reasonable for all parties.

B.4. Preferential. A preferential setting before a visiting Judge may be obtained if the parties are willing to waive in writing their objection to a visiting Judge or if the case has been set for trial on four prior occasions and has not been reached by the Court. There will be no preferential settings before a sitting Judge.

B.5. Attempt to Confer.

- a) No pre-trial matter will be set for hearing unless the moving party has first communicated with opposing Counsel to determine whether a contemplated motion or special exception will be opposed. If the motion or special exception will not be opposed, the moving party shall submit a proposed order signed by Counsel for all parties affected by the order indicating approval of same. If the motion or special exception will be opposed, the moving party shall include at the end of his pleading one of the following certificates:

- 1) "A conference was held on (date) with (name), Attorney for opposing party, on the substance of this motion or special exception. We were not able to agree; therefore, the matter is presented to the Court for determination," or
 - 2) "I was unable to reach opposing Counsel, (name), to confer about the merits of this matter, after the following attempts: (briefly state the dates and the nature of the unsuccessful attempts to contact opposing Counsel,)" or
 - 3) In multi-party cases, "Before setting this matter for hearing, I attempted to resolve this dispute by sending the attached letter to all Counsel of record."
- b) The Court Coordinator will not set any pre-trial matter for hearing unless it is accompanied by one of the foregoing statements.
 - c) This rule does not apply to cases in which no opposing Attorney has entered an appearance.

C. PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURE

C.1. TRCP. It is the intention of the Trial Courts of Williamson County to make full utilization of the pre-trial rules contained in Rule 166, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and this rule will be strictly followed.

C.2. Scheduling. At the time of filing in each non-family civil case, the Clerk will provide the plaintiff a copy of the following rules relating to pre-trial scheduling to be served with the petition. They are as follows:

- a) Any additional parties to be joined within 90 days from the date answer is filed.
- b) Plaintiff's expert witnesses to be designated within 120 days from the date answer is filed. Defendant's expert witnesses shall be designated within 150 days from the date answer is filed.

- c) Discovery shall be completed within 180 days from the date answer is filed.
- d) Motions for summary judgment to be filed within 210 days from the date answer is filed.
- e) A settlement conference must be held with the two parties present within 250 days from the date of answer.
- f) A pre-trial statement setting forth unresolved issues, proposed jury charges, and stipulations and all matters to be considered in a Rule 166 pre-trial conference shall be filed no later than 270 days from the date of answer. If the parties are unable to agree on a joint pre-trial statement then separate submission is required.

C.3. Ready for Trial. Cases will be considered ready for trial after the 270th day and may be set on Court's own motion thereafter. Failure to comply with the Rules of pre-trial scheduling may result in sanctions being imposed unless the parties seek relief prior to the foregoing deadlines.

C.4. ADR. After completion of discovery as set out in C.2.c. above but prior to any case being tried before the Court or a jury, counsel will participate in ADR to attempt to resolve the dispute, unless waived by the Court. Counsel must certify to the Court that they were unable to resolve the dispute by any ADR procedure before trial commences.

C.5. Pre-Trial. The Court will set all jury cases for pre-trial hearing. Any motions in limine will be heard at that time, and all matters considered for pre-trial pursuant to Rule 166. When Counsel for either party fails to appear at the pre-trial after notice to appear, the Court may:

- a) rule on all motions and exceptions in the absence of such Counsel;
- b) declare any motions or exceptions of such absent party to be waived;
- c) advance or delay trial setting according to the convenience of the Counsel present.

The Counsel at the pre-trial shall either be the Attorney who expects to try the case, or shall be familiar with the case and fully authorized to state his party's position on the law and facts, make stipulations and enter into settlement negotiations as trial Counsel. If the Court finds Counsel is not qualified, the Court may consider that no Counsel has appeared and may take any of the procedures provided above.

C.6. Special Exceptions. All special exceptions shall be considered waived if not timely filed and presented to the Court at the pre-trial hearing.

C.7. Withdrawal. Withdrawal by Attorney of record will be pursuant to R.10 of TRCP.

D. DISMISSAL DOCKET; INVOLUNTARY DISMISSAL

D.1. Time. At least once a year, all cases in which there has been no activity on the file for 180 days shall be placed on the dismissal docket and sent a notice of the Court's intention to dismiss the case for want of prosecution as provided by Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 165a. Written motions to remove a case from dismissal docket must be presented to the trial Judge prior to the notified date of dismissal.

D.2. Dismissal. If no appearance or announcement is made when the case is called for trial, the case will be dismissed for want of prosecution at that time.

D.3. Reset. Where motions to remove a case from dismissal docket are granted, the case shall be set for trial.

SECTION IV CRIMINAL CASES - DISTRICT COURT

A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

A.1. Name. These rules shall be known as the "Local Rules of Felony Criminal Practice in Williamson County" and may be referred to as the "Felony Criminal Rules".

A.2. Application. These rules shall be applied to secure the effective administration of the felony criminal practice in the District Courts of Williamson County, Texas, and to eliminate unjustifiable expense and delay in the disposition of felony criminal cases.

A.3. Object of Rules. These rules shall be liberally construed to achieve fairness to all parties, with due regard to the rights of the State, the accused, the victim and society.

A.4. Rules of Court. Each District Court shall retain its inherent authority to adopt local rules of Court not inconsistent with these rules.

B. GRAND JURY TERMS

B.1. Terms. The rotation of Grand Jury terms will be set by agreement of the District Judges.

B.2. Responsibilities. During the Grand Jury term of a Court, the Judge of that Court will be responsible for all ancillary criminal matters filed during the term including but not limited to the following: appointed Attorneys to unindicted indigent Defendants; granting and revoking pre-trial releases; hearing pre-indictment writs of habeas corpus; and hearing any bond issues on unindicted cases.

C. ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

All cases indicted by a Grand Jury shall be filed in the Court which impanelled the Jury except for cases transferred by agreement of the Judges or transferred by the following rules:

- C.1. Multiple Prosecutions. Multiple prosecutions arising from the same facts or against the same Defendant will be filed in the same Court. If cases must be transferred to accomplish this, all cases will go to the Court with the lowest cause number, unless the Judges agree otherwise.
- C.2. If a newly indicted Defendant has a pending case in another Court or is on probation in another Court then the new case will be transferred to that Court.
- C.3. If a new indictment is a re-indictment of a pending case then the case will be transferred to the Court where the original indictment is pending.
- C.4. Capital Cases.
- a) The first capital case returned by a Grand Jury of Williamson County, Texas, on or after the effective date of these rules, shall be deemed as filed with or transferred in the sequential rotation as follows:
 - 1st: 277th
 - 2nd: 368th
 - 3rd: 26th
 - b) A case indicted and called for trial as a capital case will count as a "Capital Case" even though subsequently reduced to a lesser offense.

D. ATTORNEY OF RECORD

- D.1. Court Appointed Counsel.
- a) Qualifications. The Court Coordinators of the District Courts shall maintain a list of Attorneys available for appointment to represent indigent Defendants in criminal cases. To be on the list the Attorney must volunteer by submitting an application providing their name, address and telephone number, together with proof that he or she is licensed by the Supreme Court of Texas and a member in good standing of the Williamson County Bar Association. This rule does not limit a Judge's authority to appoint any qualified Attorney to represent an indigent Defendant should the Judge deem it appropriate.

- b) Fee Schedule. The District Judges shall promulgate a fee schedule for the payment of Court appointed Counsel which shall take into account the nature of each case, the complexity of the legal questions involved, the time involved and the number of court appearances necessary to dispose of the case.

D.2. Appearance of Counsel. Any Attorney who makes bail bond for a Defendant, obtains the release of a Defendant by asserting his or her intent to represent Defendant as a condition of release on a personal bond, or who appears at any hearing for the Defendant shall be considered as the Attorney of record for the Defendant until released as such by the Court. In the event more than one Attorney represents a Defendant, then the lead Attorney shall file with the Court a designation of lead Attorney.

D.3. Notice in Retained Cases. Upon employment, the Defense Attorney shall give written notice thereof to the District Attorney, the District Clerk and the Court Coordinator in the Court in which the case is filed. The Clerk will note the Attorney's name on the docket sheet.

E. WITHDRAWAL OF COUNSEL

E.1. Withdrawal. An Attorney's motion to withdraw will be heard at any time when the Defendant has had notice to appear.

E.2. Substitution. Motions to substitute Counsel will be granted without hearing if the order is signed by the Defendant as well as the incoming and outgoing Attorneys. A motion to withdraw or for substitution of Counsel that causes delay requires a hearing.

E.3. Settings. Motions to withdraw or substitute Counsel are set with the Court Coordinator at the convenience of the Court. Notice of such motions shall be delivered to the State when the motion is set.

F. INITIAL APPEARANCE

After indictment, all Defendants and their Attorneys of record shall be notified and are required to appear for announcement as set by the Court.

G. PRE-TRIAL AND TRIAL SETTINGS

Each Court shall determine its own settings for pre-trial, trial and sentencing. All Defendants and their Attorneys shall appear at each scheduled pre-trial and trial hearing.

H. DISCOVERY

To encourage the expeditious disposal of cases, to promote judicial economy, and without diluting the rights of Defendants and in the interest of justice, the District Attorney's office will provide a check list of discovery material provided informally to the Defense Attorney and the list will be filed with the Court upon completion of discovery.

SECTION V

CRIMINAL CASES - COUNTY COURTS AT LAW

A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

A.1. These rules shall be known as the "Local Rules of Misdemeanor Criminal Practice in Williamson County" and may be referred to as the "Misdemeanor Criminal Rules".

A.2. These rules shall be applied to secure the effective administration of the misdemeanor criminal practice in the County Courts at Law of Williamson County, Texas, and to eliminate unjustifiable expense and delay in the disposition of misdemeanor criminal cases.

A.3. These rules shall be liberally construed to achieve fairness to all parties with due regard to the rights of the State, the accused, the victim and society.

A.4. Each County Court shall retain its inherent authority to adopt local rules of Court not inconsistent with these rules.

B. ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

B.1. All criminal cases shall be filed generally according to date of arrest, except as provided below.

B.2. Multiple prosecutions arising from the same facts or against the same Defendant will be filed in the same Court. If cases must be transferred to accomplish this, generally all cases will go to the Court of the case with the lowest cause number, unless the Judges agree otherwise.

C. ATTORNEY OF RECORD

C.1. Court Appointed Counsel.

- a) Qualifications. The Court Coordinators of the County Courts at Law shall maintain a list of Attorneys available for appointment to represent indigent Defendants in criminal cases. To be on the list the Attorney must volunteer by submitting an application providing their name, address and telephone number, together with proof that he or she is licensed by the Supreme Court of Texas and a member in good standing of the Williamson County Bar Association. An Attorney remains the Attorney of record for a Defendant until relieved by written order of the Court.
- b) Fee Schedule. The County Court at Law Judges shall promulgate a fee schedule for the payment of Court appointed Counsel which shall take into account the nature of each case, the complexity of the legal questions involved, the time involved and the number of court appearances necessary to dispose of the case.

C.2. Appearance of Counsel. Any Attorney who makes bail bond for a Defendant, obtains a release of a Defendant by asserting his or her intent to represent the Defendant as a condition of release on a personal bond, who obtains a setting or resetting of a case, appears at any hearing for the Defendant or who seeks discovery or plea recommendation shall be considered as the Attorney of record for the Defendant until released as such by the Court. In the event more than one Attorney represents a Defendant, then the lead Attorney shall file with the Court a designation of lead Attorney.

- C.3. Upon employment, the Defense Attorney shall give notice thereof to the County Attorney, the County Clerk and the Court Coordinator in the Court in which the case is filed. The Clerk will note the Attorney's name on the docket sheet and indicate whether he is retained or appointed.

D. WITHDRAWAL OF COUNSEL

- D.1. An Attorney remains the Attorney of record for a Defendant until relieved by written order of the Court.
- D.2. An Attorney's motion to withdraw will be heard at any time when the Defendant has had notice to appear.
- D.3. Motions to substitute Counsel will be granted without hearing if the order is signed by the Defendant as well as the incoming and outgoing Attorneys. A motion to withdraw or for substitution of Counsel that will cause delay requires a hearing.
- D.4. Motions to withdraw or substitute Counsel are set with the Court Coordinator at the convenience of the Court. Notice of such motions shall be delivered to the State when the motion is set.

E. INITIAL APPEARANCE

- E.1. When the Defendant is released on bond, the Defendant shall be notified of a date to appear before the Court. Defendants are to appear on that date at the time specified or forfeit their bond and a new warrant shall issue for their arrest. A new bond may be set by the Court.

- E.2. In instances where a Defendant has not been arrested, i.e. citation by a peace officer, referral/transfer from the District Courts, a Defendant may be given notice to appear at a specific time and date. Failure to appear may result in additional charges and a warrant shall issue for the Defendant's arrest and a bond amount may be set by the Court.

F. PRE-TRIAL AND TRIAL SETTINGS

- F.1. Each Court shall determine its own settings for pre-trial, trial and sentencing.
- F.2. All Defendants and their Attorneys shall appear at each scheduled pre-trial and trial setting.
- F.3. Cases may be set by the Court to the Announcement Docket. Notice of such setting will be given to the Defendant and the Defense Attorney. Attendance at the Announcement Docket setting by both the Defendant and the Defense Attorney is required. Failure of the Defendant to appear at the Announcement Docket may result in the Defendant's bond being revoked. Failure of the Defense Attorney to appear may result in sanctions as the Court deems appropriate. Cases may be reset from the Announcement Docket after a plea bargain recommendation is obtained from the County Attorney's office.
- F.4. Defense Attorneys shall subpoena all witnesses, including the State's witnesses, and all law enforcement officers necessary for pre-trial hearings.
- a) No pre-trial motions shall be heard on the date of the jury trial, except motions in limine.
 - b) All pre-trials shall be held at least seven (7) days prior to jury trial
 - c) All pre-trial motions must be filed at least seven (7) days before the date of the pre-trial hearing.

G. PROBATION INTAKE INTERVIEW

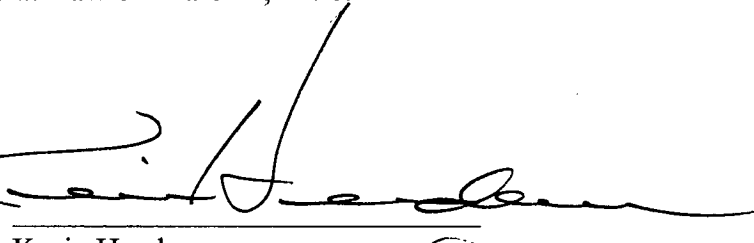

G.1. Defendants to be placed on probation shall be required to complete a Probation Intake Interview with the Williamson County Probation Department on a day prior to the date set for sentencing unless otherwise permitted by the Court.

G.2. Attorneys representing Defendants shall be responsible for making appointments for their clients in advance of the sentencing date so that no delays are incurred in disposing of the case.

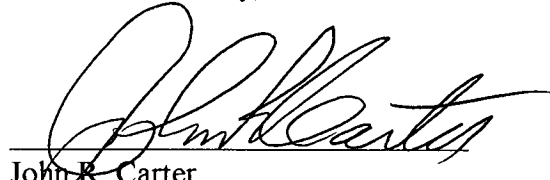

The foregoing local rules for Williamson County were approved at a called meeting of the Judges of the District Courts and the County Courts-at-Law on March 8, 1996.

RULES OF ADMINISTRATION

THIRD ADMINISTRATIVE JUDICIAL REGION OF TEXAS

EFFECTIVE JANUARY 9, 1988

Authority. These rules are promulgated by the Council of Judges of the Third Administrative Judicial Region of Texas pursuant to Section 74.048, Texas Government Code and Rule 4(d) of the Rules of Judicial Administration adopted by the Supreme Court of Texas on February 4, 1987.

Rule 1: These rules apply to all District and Statutory County Courts of the Third Administrative Judicial Region of Texas.

Rule 2: It is the goal of each District and Statutory County Court in the Third Administrative Judicial Region that each case filed in this region should, so far as reasonably possible, be brought to trial or final disposition in conformity with the time standards adopted by Rule 6 of the Supreme Court Rules of Judicial Administration.

Rule 3: Each Court in this Region shall adopt and uniformly follow local rules governing the filing, docketing and assignment of cases to achieve the time standards of Rule 6 of the Supreme Court Rules of Judicial Administration, so far as reasonably possible, and meet the requirements of Rules 7, 9 and 10 of the Supreme Court Rules of Judicial Administration.

a). If there are both District and Statutory County Courts in a county, the judges of each level of court shall adopt local rules as contemplated by this rule.

1). Such judges shall attempt to make all local rules uniform within a county so far as reasonably possible.

b). If there is more than one court in a county at either level of court, all judges of each level of court shall adopt uniform local rules as contemplated by this rule. Such rules shall be adopted by majority vote.

Rule 4: a). The local administrative judge of each county shall send to the regional presiding judge such information as may be requested by the regional presiding judge regarding the status of the dockets and docket management systems of the county.

b). The local administrative judge of each county shall cause the proper clerk to send the regional presiding judge a copy of the Office of Court Administration monthly report and such other information as may be requested by the regional presiding judge regarding the status of the dockets of the county.

Rule 5: The courts in this region may adopt a jury plan consistent with applicable statutes governing the selection, management and assignment of prospective jurors and the time of jury service, file such plan with the district clerk, and secure the approval of the county commissioners court when required. Each court in this region shall adopt a local rule indicating whether that court utilizes the jury wheel or the electronic or mechanical method of selection of names of persons for jury service.

Rule 6: Attorney vacations.

a). A court may not schedule an attorney for trial for a period of a maximum of four consecutive weeks in a given calendar year.

If the attorney has filed a written notification with the appropriate clerk and court administrator of any county in which such attorney has a pending case.

b). Such notice must be filed at least ninety (90) days in advance of such vacation period and shall apply only to cases not already scheduled for trial within such period.

c). The court shall have discretion to consider a motion for continuance on the grounds of an attorney's vacation in appropriate circumstances not covered by subsections a) and b) of this rule.

Rule 7: Conflicting engagements.

a). If an attorney is actually in trial in one court, such attorney may not be put to trial in another court.

b). When an attorney is assigned to two courts for the same date:

1). It is the duty of the attorney to call the affected judges' attention to all dual settings as soon as they are known.

2). When a dual setting problem is made known, the affected judges should confer and agree on which case has priority.

3). The following priorities are established to aid judges in determining which case has priority:

A). Criminal case

B). Case given preference by statute

C). Earliest set case

D). Earliest filed case

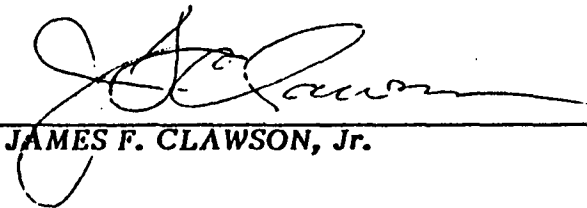

E). Courts in multi-judge counties should yield to single judge counties and courts of multi-county districts.

c). In the event the affected judges cannot agree on which case has priority, the question shall be resolved by the regional presiding judge or judges. If two or more regions are affected and the regional presiding judges cannot agree, the question shall be resolved by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas.

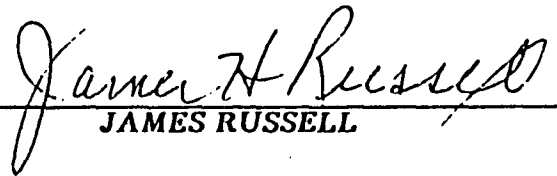

Rule 8: On the request of the local administrative judge, the regional presiding judge shall assign the judges of this region (or of other regions, pursuant to statute) to hold special or regular terms of court in any county of the administrative region to try cases and dispose of accumulated business.

Rule 9: The regional presiding judge shall appoint such committees as are necessary to conduct the proper affairs of this region.

Adopted at the Third Administrative Judicial Region Council of Judges Meeting, January 9, 1988 at Salado, Texas.

Children's Interest Seminar

The seminar shall focus on fostering emotional health for children during periods of stress brought about by divorce and conflict between divorced parents.

The seminar administrator shall be designated by the Court. The Court has currently designated Child and Family Services of Williamson County to be the seminar administrators.

The course content shall generally consist of the following:

- (1) the developmental stages of childhood,
- (2) the needs of children at different ages,
- (3) stress indicators in children,
- (4) age appropriate expectations of children,
- (5) divorce as a growth stage,
- (6) the grief process,
- (7) reducing stress for children going through a divorce,
- (8) the changing parental and marital roles,
- (9) visitation recommendations to enhance the child's relationship with both parents,
- (10) financial obligations of child rearing,
- (11) conflict management and dispute resolution.

Each seminar shall be a minimum of two hours and a maximum of four hours. The seminar may include the showing of videos, such as "Don't Forget The Children" and "Children In The Middle".

The seminar shall be presented at such times and places as scheduled and announced by the seminar administrator.

A fee of not more than $30.00, unless waived by the Court, may be charged by the seminar administrator to be used to cover costs.

Each person completing the seminar and paying the appropriate fee shall receive a certificate to file with the Court.

The Court may require a certified peace officer to be in attendance at each seminar to provide security.
