PETITIONER'S FIRST REQUEST FOR ADMISSIONS

TO: Charles Hosack, Respondent, [REDACTED]

Pursuant to Rule 169 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, you are requested to admit the truth of each of the matters set forth below not later than (30) days or such other time as the Court may order after receipt of this request. If objection is made to the request, the reason therefore shall be stated. Your answer must specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reason that you cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that you qualify your answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, you shall specify so much of it as true and qualify or deny the remainder. You may not give lack of information or knowledge as the reason for failure to admit or deny unless you state that you have made reasonable inquiry, and that the information known or easily obtainable by you is insufficient to enable you to admit or deny. Each of the matters below will be deemed admitted unless within thirty (30) days after service of the request, or within such time as the Court may allow, you serve upon Petitioner written answer or objection addressed to each matter, signed by you or your attorney.
