<sup>1</sup>For the reason explained in the Cautionary Statement at p. 19 above, the mere number of opinions attributable to particular courts or judges for a single year may not be significant in estimating judicial output.

<sup>2</sup>Generally, over a sufficient period of time, such as two years or more, these, together with those in column (e), reliably indicate the output of the court or judge in question.

<sup>3</sup>Ordinarily these involve substantially less work than an original opinion of the court, but occasionally the contrary is true.
