

APPLICATION TO CONTINUE ELIGIBILITY FOR JUDICIAL ASSIGNMENT

I, _____, request that the Presiding Judge of the First Administrative Judicial Region retain my name on the list of senior, retired and former judges subject to assignment pursuant to §§ 74.054-74.056, Texas Government Code.

1. Expertise. I have maintained expertise in the following area(s) of specialty:

criminal civil family law juvenile probate.

2. Disciplinary Proceedings (check both).

The State Commission on Judicial Conduct has not instituted any formal proceedings against me during the preceding twelve month period.

The State Commission on Judicial Conduct has not instituted a full investigation into an allegation or appearance of misconduct or disability on my part.

3. Continuing Legal Education (check one). During the preceding state fiscal year:

I completed the educational requirements for active district, statutory probate, and statutory county court judges, being 16 hours of instruction in substantive, procedural and evidentiary law and court administration, as provided by the Rules of Judicial Education.

I received a waiver of these requirements from the Court of Criminal Appeals, as shown in the attached waiver.

4. Family Violence Education. If I have designated family law as an area of specialty, I have completed the required family violence instruction, pursuant to the requirement of Texas Government Code § 22.110.

5. State Bar Status. I am currently an active member of the State Bar of Texas and will maintain active status during the time I am on the list of judges subject to serve on assignment maintained by my presiding judge under Texas Government Code, § 74.055.

6. General Health. I am physically and mentally fit to continue serving on judicial assignment.
